Excerpt of pertinent information:

Page 4--General Nicolae Radescu:

Mr. Tozen advised that he has known of General Radescu for a number of years. He stated that Radescu is the one man in Rumania who resisted both the Germans and the Russians. He states that Radescu, in his opinion, is the finest representative that Rumania has today who is outside the Rumanian prisons. He remarked too that Radescu was the only one who represented the Rumanians in the United States who would have any possibility of being accepted by the Rumanians "back home."

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
